I. Foreword

The COVID-19 pandemic has taught us the importance of building stronger institutions to combat crisis situations- this is a need felt not just in the health sector but in all areas including the policing and law and order system.

Mumbai Police has been in the forefront of maintaining law and order during the pandemic and the ensuing lockdown. Their vigilance has been instrumental in maintaining law and order of the city from cooperating with various stakeholders in food ration distribution to ensuring the citizen's abidance of lockdown protocols – all while putting their own lives at risk due to limited availability of protective resources at the lockdown's inception. While the Mumbai police have performed many more functions during the pandemic, it has been working under severe pressure, and has been overburdened well before the pandemic.

In 2019-20 for example, there was an 18% shortage of police personnel in Mumbai compared to sanctioned posts. This in turn has an impact on the existing workforce, including extended work hours and working conditions that affect the overall health of police, reducing their ability to perform their duties effectively.

We all are aware of the high COVID-19 incidence and deaths in the Mumbai Police. But over the years, a large number of police persons have succumbed to lifestyle related diseases directly linked to exposure in work and working conditions- for example from April 2017 to October 2020, the highest cause of death of police personnel was heart attacks (113 deaths). 16 deaths by suicide were also reported in the same period. In terms of living conditions as well, we have been unable to provide adequate housing for the police force- as on March 2020, only 38% of the police force was allotted police housing.

Shortage of police personnel and quality of working/living conditions of police in turn affects the overall performance such as in the investigation of cases. In 2019 for example, there was a 64% pendency of investigation in IPC cases. Vacancy in sanctioned posts also has a direct impact on performance in case of the judiciary; where there was a 28% shortage in public prosecutors and 14% shortage of Sessions court judges. In 2019, 2,49,922 cases were to be tried in courts for IPC in Mumbai in 2019 out of which judgement was given in just 6% of the cases.

A lifecycle study conducted for Sessions court cases from 2013 to 2017, shows that it took, on an average, 11.1 months from FIR to charge sheet, while the same should be done within 90 days. Further, it took, on an average, 2.4 years from first hearing to judgement. Highest time taken to pass judgements from FIR was in cases of dacoity (5.8 years). In spite of more time taken for investigation and trial, this has not led to improved conviction rates – only 24% of cases from 2013 to 2017 were convicted in Mumbai's Sessions court.

One of the ways adopted to reduce high pendency of cases was passing of special laws with clear provisions for timely completion of cases through special courts- however, these too have not been successful. One such example is the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 that, recognising the need for controlling and providing speedy justice in the case of sexual crimes against children, provided for these cases to be completed within one year from the date of cognisance while being tried in a special POCSO court.

Crime in India data shows that while annually there are 1000+ cases of sexual crimes against children registered under POCSO in Mumbai, very few were tried annually in the POCSO court. In 2019 for example, 1,319 cases of POCSO were registered, 448 cases were tried in courts, of which only half (222) were tried in the special POCSO court. Moreover, only 20% of these judgements in POCSO courts were pronounced within one year (as required by the Act).

This points to the fact that just setting up additional courts or provisions in law will not help until the entire process is streamlined and causes for delay are analysed and corrected timely- instead of being accepted as an inherent character of the system.

For this, it is first important to fill vacant posts and look at police reforms that reduce the burden on the existing police and ensure better working and living conditions for them so that they can perform their duties effectively. This will in turn also lead to improved quality of investigation, which would ensure timely justice. Similarly, for the judiciary there is a need to create an incentive structure for people to prefer to be a part of the judicial system- only then can the paucity of judges and prosecutors be met.

A second bigger, and more challenging aspect, is to sensitize and train the people operating within the system. What any victim first needs, is an unbiased, co-operative and sensitive police and judiciary. This needs to be ingrained as a part of not just induction and regular in-service training but also in the selection criteria.

Third, like any other system or governance structure, monitoring is key to ensuring accountability in the system. In line with this, one of the reforms suggested was that of setting up a Police Complaints Authority (PCA) that registers and investigates complaints against police personnel. Although PCA has been set up at state level (for complaints against posts of Deputy Superintendent/Assistant Commissioner of Police and above) there is a need to set up PCA at the divisional level (Konkan Division) for Mumbai to take complaints against ranks of Senior Police Inspector and below. Further, PCA covers only heinous crimes or misconduct by police, sifting out the often subtle but intimidating behavior of police towards victims. Even of the complaints it does take, it has no authority of final decision in the case, which rests solely with the respective government that controls the police, almost negating the relevance of the body.

Lastly, we need people to be partners in policing through a police-public relationship of trust and collaboration, to not just effectively report and investigate crimes or maintain law and order, but to address and tackle the inherent and underlying causes of crime.

Praja has obtained the data used in compiling this white paper through Right to Information Act, 2005. Hence it is very important to acknowledge the RTI Act and everyone involved, especially the officials who have provided us this information diligently.

We would like to appreciate our stakeholders; particularly, our Elected Representatives & government officials, the Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) and the journalists who utilize and publicize our data and, by doing so, ensure that awareness regarding various issues that we discuss is distributed to a wide-ranging population. We would like to take this opportunity to specifically extend our gratitude to all government officials for their continuous cooperation and support.

We would like to specifically thank the students and faculty of Pravin Gandhi College of Law Mumbai, Narsee Monjee Institute of Management Studies Mumbai, Thakur College of Law Mumbai, and interns from various other colleges who contributed to the sessions court lifecycle study.

Praja Foundation appreciates the support given by our supporters and donors, namely Friedrich Naumann Foundation, Narotam Sekhsaria Foundation and Madhu Mehta Foundation and numerous other individual supporters. Their support has made it possible for us to conduct our study & publish this white paper.

We would also like to thank our group of Advisors & Trustees and last but not the least, we would like to acknowledge the contributions of all members of Praja's team, who worked to make this white paper a reality.

III. Summary of State of Policing and Judiciary in Mumbai, Its Impact on Solving of Major Crimes and Recommendations

State of Police Personnel and Judiciary	Impact on Solving of Major Crimes	Recommendations
There was a shortage of 35% in the post of Police Sub-Inspector (P.S.I.) in 2019-20, who also perform the role of investigation officers. There was a shortage of 42% (249 working out of 426 sanctioned) in Mumbai's Forensic Laboratory in 2019-20. Police reforms such as separation of investigation and law and order that ensures focus of personnel on investigation has been implemented and there are separate Investigation Units set up. There was a 14% shortage in Sessions court judges as of April 2020. There was a 28% shortage in Mumbai's public prosecutors in 2019-20.	There was a high pendency of investigation in cases of crime against women (67%) and children (73%) in 2019. The percentage of cases examined in Mumbai's forensic lab fell drastically from 88% in 2018 to 55% in 2019. 17,749 cases were pending for forensic investigation at the end of 2019. Of the total IPC cases investigated by Mumbai police in 2019 (43,163) charge sheet was filed in 65% of the cases. A total of 2,49,922 cases were to be tried in courts for IPC in Mumbai in 2019 out of which judgement was given in just 6% of cases. A Sessions court lifecycle study of cases where judgement has been passed shows that the conviction rate of IPC crimes in the last 10 years has not improved- only 24% of cases from 2013 to 2017 and 23% cases from 2008 to 2012 were convicted in Mumbai's Sessions court. It took on an average 3.4 years from FIR to Judgement in IPC cases solved in Sessions courts from 2013 to 2017. Major reason for acquittal in 2013 to 2017 Sessions cases was failure of the prosecution to prove guilt due to lack of evidence and witnesses (79.6%).	There is a dire need for having adequate police force and forensic personnel and filling the sanctioned posts for effective policing and investigation. Police reforms such as separation of investigation and law and order although implemented, the number of investigation officers required based on the number of cases needs to be regularly revised. The police-citizen relations need to be improved through trust building and awareness. Police officials need to be sensitised to involve citizens as partners in policing, welcome inputs from the community and act in a collaborative and co-operative manner when it comes to reporting of cases, leads, etc. For this training and counselling of police officials on the behavioural skills towards citizens needs to be done. There is a dire need for having adequate judicial personnel and filling the sanctioned posts for effective functioning of judiciary.

The Protection of Children Against Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act provides for a separate POCSO court to try cases of sexual crimes against children and ensure completion within one year of cognisance of offense. This is however not being properly implemented.	61% of total rape cases (1,016) were against children (under age of 18) as registered in POCSO in 2019. In half of the total POCSO cases trial in 2019 (226 out of 448) was not done in special POCSO Court. Of 222 cases tried in POCSO Court in 2019, only 20% cases were completed within one year.	There is need for a multi-stakeholder approach to be adopted for creating awareness and sensitising people to prevent sexual abuse of children, by engaging with all the stakeholders i.e. children, families, communities, schools, colleges, civil society organisations and the police. The implementation of special laws such as POCSO needs to be effectively monitored- for example ensuring that special courts try POCSO cases and disposes the cases within one year as prescribed by the Act.
Under police reforms, there is a need to implement agencies such as the State Security Commission (SSC) to lay down broad policy guidelines and evaluate the performance of the police; however, this has not been implemented. Police Complaints Authority (PCA) has been set up at state level (for complaints against posts of Deputy Superintendent/Assistant Commissioner of Police and above) but not at the divisional level (Konkan Division) for Mumbai. Therefore, there is no authority where public complaints against police officers in Mumbai of rank of Senior Police Inspector and below in cases of serious misconduct or heinous crimes could be made.	Lack of SSC and PCAs leads to poor functioning of policing system and lack of accountability. Divisional PCAs not being set up is a serious gap in the accountability mechanism of the police department and no proper grievance mechanism for complaints against the police exists. PCA only has powers for recommendation and the final decision regarding any case lies with government.	There is a need to set up the SSC and ensure its effective functioning to enable better service conditions for police and thereby ensure better investigation of crimes. Divisional PCAs need to be set up to enable citizens to complaint against police of or below rank of senior police inspector rank. PCA needs to be given independent authority to try cases and take decisions against atrocities by police.

IV: Crime Statistics

A. Major Crimes Reported in Mumbai

Table 1: Reporting of Major Crimes in Mumbai from 2015-16 to 2019-20

Major Crimes	2015-16	2016-17	2017-18	2018-19	2019-20	% Change from 2015-16 to 2019-20

Vehicle Theft	3,324	3,046	3,245	2,849	2,697	-19%

Inference:

- The reporting of rape and molestation cases increased by 24% (from 728 to 904) and 25% (2,145 to 2,677) respectively from 2015-16 to 2019-20.
- Reporting of other crimes like murder, house breaking, chain snatching, thefts (including vehicles stolen) have fallen from 2015-16 to 2019-20.

² Chain snatching cases have fallen because all such cases are no longer reported under this head, but as robbery.

	Male	225	33	33
	%	90%	62%	69%
	Total	250	53	48

Inference:

- 98% of total victims of kidnapping and abduction were children (kidnapping) in 2019.
- 62% of total kidnapping victims were girls in 2019, whereas for abduction majority victims were males (69%).

Inference:

- Most victims of kidnapping were of age group 12 to 16 years (46% in 2019) and 16 to 18 years (43% in 2019).
- 50% abduction victims were of age group 18 to 30 years in 2019.

Un-Recovered Kidnapped & Abducted Persons (As on 31st December of current year)	522	259	781	840	458	1,298	905	449	1,354

Inference:

- In 2019, out of 3,483 victims of kidnapping and abduction, 61% were recovered.
- However, recovery percent has fallen in 2019, as compared to 78% in 2017.

B. Cases under Protection of Children Against Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act⁵

A long due step to protect the rights of children, acknowledging the rampant problem of Child Sexual Abuse (CSA) in India, was enacting of the special law- Protection of Children Against Sexual Offences (POCSO) 2012.

Under this law, child rape, harassment, exploitative use of children for the purposes of prostitution and pornography are all criminalised and severely punished. This Act also brought gender parity- victims of all genders under the age of 18 can report a sexual crime.

The Act (Section 28) also envisioned the setting up of special courts for speedy trial and delivery of justice taking into consideration the exposure that a child would face if proceedings took place in regular courts. Further, the Act (Section 35) provided for the cases to be disposed within a period of one year from the time of cognisance of the offense to ensure speedy justice to the child victims and prevent arduous and prolonged proceedings that would have a negative impact on the victim's health.

Inference:

- 61% of total rape cases (1,016) were against children (under age of 18) as registered in POCSO in 2019.
- This highlights the need of a multi-stakeholder approach to be adopted for creating awareness and sensitising people to prevent sexual abuse of children, by engaging with all the stakeholders i.e. children, families, communities, schools, colleges, civil society organisations and the police.

Inference:

- In 97% of POCSO rape cases offenders were known to the victim in 2019.
- In 54% cases, rape offenders were friends on pretext of marriage while 21% cases were of other known offenders.

Table 6: Reporting of Sexual Crimes against Children under POCSO from 2017 to 2019

POCSO Sections	Gender	Cases/Victims	2017	2018	2019

		Victims	8	2	50
Grand Total		Cases Reported	1,054	1,144	1,319
		Victims	1,096	1,254	1,431

Inference:

- In 96% of the total 1,319 POCSO cases in 2019 victims were girls, in which highest cases were of rape (622) and sexual assault (609).
- Of the 50 cases reported of POSCO crimes against boys, 90% were unnatural offences (anal/oral intercourse). The low proportion of male cases reported to total cases also reflects the stigma attached to reporting of sexual crimes against males.

C. Road Accident Cases

Table 7: Number of Accidents, Persons Injured and Killed from 2015 to 2019⁶

Year	No. of Accidents	No. of Persons Injured	No. of Persons Died
2015	23,347	4,037	520
2016*	3,349	3,532	510
2017	3,160	3,287	490
2018	3,139	3,326	410
2019 ⁷	2,131	2,201	293

Note: (*) Until 2015, NCs filed for accidents were recorded. However, from 2016 F.I.R. registered for the accidents was recorded. In Greater Mumbai Region "Without Injury Accidents" are not registered as 'F.I.R.' in Police Station therefore, the number of accidents in Mumbai City drastically decreased by 86% in 2016 as compared to 2015.

Inference:

2,131 road accidents were reported in 2019, upto September that led to injury of 2,201 persons and 293 deaths.

⁶ Economic Survey of Maharashtra.

⁷ 2019 data is upto September

D. Railway Crime Statistics

Table 8: Reporting of Major Railway Crimes in Mumbai from 2015-16 to 2019-20

Major Crimes	2015-16	2016-17	2017-18	2018-19	2019-20
Murder	2	1	2	9	1
Dacoity/Robbery	204	30	569	1,050	1,177
All Thefts ⁸	2,121	2,302	22,802	23,987	18,604
Rape	2	5	5	1	6
Molestation	49	32	72	94	91
Other IPC	161	132	204	271	314
Total	2,539	2,502	23,654	25,412	20,193

Inference:

Local railway is a mode of commute for large number of people in Mumbai and safety is an important component of transport. Most number of cases reported in 2019-20 were thefts (18,604) followed by dacoity and robbery (1,177). Safety of women in local trains is important as well, data shows that cases of rape and molestation have increased in the last 5 years.

Total	1,576	1,509	1,518	1,415	1,192	1,796	2,084	1,935	1,888	1,665

Inference:

- Accidental deaths have reduced marginally from 1,576 in 2015-16 to 1,192 in 2019-20.
- Accidental injuries have marginally reduced from 1,796 in 2015-16 to 1,665 in 2019-20.

⁸ In Greater Mumbai Region "All Thefts" were not registered as F.I.R. in Police Station. Till 2015, only missing complaints were filed for majority of the thefts. Praja had been obtaining data only for the FIR registered for thefts for Railway Crime. From 2016, for every theft F.I.R is registered, hence there is an increase in number of registered Thefts that were obtained through RTIs.

Inference:

- Out of the total deaths due to railway accidents (1,192) in 2019-20, 50% of deaths (591) were due to line crossing, followed by 24% deaths (285) due to falling from trains.
- Accident Deaths due to line crossing were highest in Borivali (153) and Kurla (140) in 2019-20.

Inference:

Out of the total injuries due to railway accidents (1,665) in 2019-20, 43% of deaths (717) were due to falling from trains.

E. Cases Registered in Anti-Corruption Bureau⁹

Table 12: Number of cases registered in Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) from 2015 to 2019

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019
Total Complaints Registered	3,600	3,181	3,231	2,852	2,402
Cases Under ACB	1,103	771	671	659	398
Total FIRs registered	72	67	47	45	42

Inference:

- 2,402 cases were registered with the ACB in 2019. Of these, FIR was filed in 42 cases. Cases not taken up by ACB are not related to corruption and are transferred to the respective departments that are mandated to take up the respective complaint.
- Out of the 398 cases taken up by ACB in 2019, in 10.5% of cases (42 cases), FIR was filed.

Table 13: Department wise number of FIRs registered in ACB from 2015 to 2019¹⁰

Year		2015	2016	2017	2018	2019

MP		0	1	0	0	0
Other		11	16	10	5	4

Note: One FIR may be filled against multiple department/person/others; hence, total count of FIR does not match the department wise total.

Inference:

In the year 2019, the highest number of FIR's registered in ACB are against the officials of MCGM department (18) followed by Police department (9).

⁹ The main function of Anti-Corruption Bureau is to investigate cases of corruption. Citizens can approach ACB if any of the Government officials asks for bribe for example for any government duty.

V. Investigation and Trial of Cases

Table 14: Cases received and examined by the Mumbai Forensic Laboratory from 2015 to 2019

Year	Cases Received	Arrears from last year	Total Cases	Cases Examined	Cases Examined (in %)	Carried Forward for next year
2015	28,014	23,057	51,071	26,514	52%	24,557
2016	36,157	13,998	50,155	36,428	73%	13,727
2017	33,474	11,399	44,873	33,247	74%	11,626
2018	35,463	11,545	47,008	41,400	88%	5,608
2019	35,488	5,552	41,040	22,530	55%	17,749

Inference:

- The pendency of cases for forensic examination directly impacts the time taken for investigation of cases.
- The percentage of cases examined fell drastically from 88% in 2018 to 55% in 2019.
- 17,749 cases were pending for forensic investigation at the end of 2019.

% of cases pending for trial at the end of the year	93%	90%	89%

Inference:

- 3,039 POCSO cases were to be investigated in Mumbai in 2019 out of which 61% cases were pending for investigation at the end of the year. Out of the cases investigated, charge sheet was filed in 1,150 cases.
- 4,250 cases were to be tried in courts for crime against children in Mumbai in 2019 out of which 89% cases were pending for trial at the end of the year.
- Of the 418 cases in which the trial was completed in 2019, 46% were convicted, while 54% were acquitted/discharged.

More than 3 years	No.	0	283	0	330	0	528
	%	0%	11%	0%	11%	0%	14%

Inference:

- 56% of POCSO cases were pending for investigation for 6 months to 1 year in 2019, while charge sheeting should be done in 3 months (90 days).
- 42% of POCSO cases were pending for trial since 1 to 3 years and 14% cases were pending for more than 3 years while the POCSO Act prescribes for completion of trial within 1 year.

3 to 5 years	No.		44	50
	%		25%	23%
5 to 10 years	No.		6	20
	%		3%	9%

Inference:

- Half (50%) of the total POCSO cases trial in 2019 was not done in special POCSO Court in accordance with the Act.
- Of the cases tried in POCSO court in 2019, in 80% cases trial was completed after a period of one year, whereas the Act prescribes completion of cases within one year.

	Acquittal (%)	61%	57%	62%
Crimes under POCSO Act	Conviction (%)	39%	40%	46%
	Acquittal (%)	61%	60%	54%

Inference:

- Conviction rate of cases of crime against women was the lowest (31%) followed by cases of crime against children (38%).
- Conviction rate improved over the years in all crimes except cases of crime against children where it has fallen from 2017 to 2019.

VI. Human Resources in the Policing and Law and Order System

A. Police Personnel

Total	28,533	20,731	-27%	29,112	22,087	-24%

Inference:

- In the police personnel allocated to the different police departments, there is a total gap of 24% in 2020.
- The control room where crime surveillance and taking of complaints through helpline numbers is done, had the highest shortage in personnel (49%) in 2020.

¹³ Does not include personnel sanctioned and working in police stations.

Total	150	133	139	165

Inference:

- Highest cause of death reported from April 2017 to October 2020 was of heart diseases (113 deaths), followed by cancer (52) and liver/kidney disorders (43).
- 16 cases of death by suicide were reported from April 2017 to October 2020.
- From April to October 2020 the highest number of deaths have been reported due to COVID-19 (90 deaths).

Table 27: Shortage in Allocation of Police Housing as on March 2020

Shortage of police housing units (police not allotted housing units)	31,620
% shortage	62%
Total	50,676

Inference:

62% of police personnel were not allotted housing units as on March 2020, reflecting a huge gap in police housing in Mumbai.

B. Railway Personnel

Table 28: Railway Police Personnel¹⁴ in the Railway Police Stations¹⁵ in 2020¹⁶

Total IV	114	73	-36%	114	75	-34%
Grand Total	426	249	-42%	426	249	-42%

Inference:

- The above mentioned data shows sanctioned post and number of working personnel in Mumbai's Forensic Laboratory. The grand total of all Classes (I to IV) shows shortage of 42% i.e. out of 426 only 249 are working for the year 2019-20.
- Highest shortage of personnel was in post of scientific officer, a shortage of 96% i.e. out of 28 sanctioned posts only 1 is working.

¹⁸ Data as of March of the respective year. Example 2018-19 data is as of March, 2019.

D. Separation of Investigation and Law and Order Functions

A standing order was passed by former Director General of Police, Sanjeev Dayal, dated 24/05/2015 titled 'Separation of investigation in cases triable under sessions court from law & order' in furtherance of a Supreme Court Judgement in 2006 which laid this out as one of the police reforms to be implemented. Separation of policing and law and order functions ensures that police personnel involved in investigation of cases are not diverted to perform law and order functions such as bandobast duty. The standing order provided for setting up of separate investigation unit staff, which can undertake timely investigation of cases. Data regarding the implementation of the standing order has been available since 2017.

Table 30: Implementation of Standing Order (dated 24/05/2015) regarding Separation of Policing and Law and Order Functions of Police from 2017 to 2019

2019	2,449	2,226	2,075	155	294	131	560	394	803

Inference:

- In furtherance of the Standing Order for separation of investigation and law and order functions (dated 24/05/2015) the investigation unit (IU) is allotted with separate officers and staff based on the caseload.
- The number of officers and police staff allotted to IUs in Mumbai has been increasing from 2017 to 2019.
- Since 2017, when data for the IU is available it can be seen that majority cases have been investigated by the IU- 91% of total sessions trial cases were investigated by IUs in 2019.

¹⁹ For Total cases charge sheeted, Total cases categorized as final and total cases pending for Investigation by IU may include cases from previous years.

²⁰ As per standing order 24 of 2015, workforce required by IU was suggested according to the number of cases registered in 2015. Currently, the number of workforce has been increased according the need and increase in number of cases registered in Sessions court.

Total	2,449	2,226	2,075	155	294	131	560	394	803

Inference:

- There were 394 officers and 803 other police personnel working in 2019 for IUs in Mumbai.
- This complies with the standing order, which mentioned 131 officers and 560 other police personnel in 2015 based upon the 2,164 sessions trial cases registered in Mumbai in 2014. Given that a total of 2,449 cases were registered in 2019 (a 13% increase as compared to 2014), the corresponding increase in number of police officials (201% increase as compared to 2015) and other police personnel (43% increase as compared to 2015) in 2019 shows accordance with provisions of the order.

²¹ For Total cases charge sheeted, Total cases categorized as final and total cases pending for Investigation by IU may include cases from previous years.

²² As per standing order 24 of 2015, workforce required by IU was suggested according to the number of cases registered in 2014. Currently, the number of workforce has been increased according the need and increase in number of cases registered in Sessions court.

E. Police Complaints Authority

Government of Maharashtra constituted the State Police Complaints Authority (PCA), which has been notified on 25th May 2015. It was done in pursuance of Section 22P (2) of the Maharashtra Police (Amendment and Continuance) Act, 2014 (Mah. XXIV of 2014) that came into force from 1st February 2014. Police Complaints Authority can receive complaints regarding serious violation of law or abuse of lawful authority by police authorities. It has the power to conduct enquiries, receive evidence, conduct hearings and give final orders in the form of recommendations to police department and state government regarding initiation of departmental proceedings or registration of FIR if misconduct is established. However, the PCA only has powers for recommendation and the final decision regarding any case lies with the state government.

The State PCA is to consist of 5 members, a retired high court judge (chairperson), retired police officer (not below rank of Special Inspector General of Police, a retired officer of the rank of Secretary to State government or above, an eminent civil society member, and a police officer not below the rank of Additional Director General and Inspector General of Police (Member Secretary). An RTI regarding the State PCA composition reveals that two posts are vacant- the post of retired police officer has been given a temporary additional charge, and the post of retired officer of the rank of Secretary to State Government is vacant. A balanced representation of the PCA is necessary for its effective functioning.

In Maharashtra, the State PCA was established as per the provision; however, the divisional PCAs have not been set up. Of Pune, Nagpur, Nashik, Aurangabad, Amravati and Konkan divisions only Pune and Nashik divisions are functioning. Mumbai falls under the Konkan Division PCA. The establishment of divisional PCAs is very important since the State PCA only accepts complaints regarding officers of the level Deputy Superintendent/Assistant Commissioner of Police and above, whereas complaints regarding police personnel of the rank of Senior Police Inspector and below are to be made to the Divisional PCA. An RTI filed regarding the minutes of meetings held by the Home Ministry of the State government from 2018-19 regarding PCA shows that discussion (on 25.06.2018) of deciding land for Konkan division PCA office was done, however there was no deadline or mention of when the divisional PCA would be set up. Further, in response to the 2019-20 RTI it was stated that no further meetings were held on this issue. Since the Divisional PCAs are not set up, a serious gap exists in the accountability mechanism of the police department and no proper grievance mechanism for complaints against the police exists.

F. State Security Commission

The State Security Commission was to be set up in furtherance of a Supreme Court order in 2006 regarding implementation of police reforms. One of the core roles of the Commission was to advise the government on broad policy guidelines for better policing in consultation with police chiefs and to monitor efficacy of policing, initiate preventive measures and ensure service-oriented functions of the police²³. However, the State Security Commission has not been established as per the order. The last reply of Praja's RTI regarding setting up of the Commission in 2020 is provided below.

G. Performance of Public Prosecutors of Mumbai's Sessions Court

There are two types of Public Prosecutors:

- Permanent Public Prosecutors whose current status in Mumbai session courts is that there is only 1 available working personnel out of 15 sanctioned posts.
- Contractual Public Prosecutors whose current status in Mumbai session courts is that there are 36 working personnel out of 50 sanctioned posts.

Public Prosecutors are required by Law (Section 270 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898) to conduct the prosecution in all Criminal trials held in a Court of Sessions, but it rests entirely with Executive to decide in what appeals or revision cases Public Prosecutors are to appear in the Sessions Court. The Public Prosecutor has two types of reports for their appraisal:

1. Disposal Rate of Public Prosecutors:

Table 32: Comparison of Permanent and Contractual Public Prosecutors from 2015-16 to 2019-20²⁴

Year	Sanctioned		Working		Total Cases		Convicted Cases		Conviction Rate (%)
	Perm anent	Contra ctual	Perman ent	Contra ctual	Perma nent	Contrac tual	Perm anent	Contrac tual	Perma nent	Contrac tual
2015-16	15	21	3	16	49	489	12	165	24%	34%
2016-17	15	40	3	31	79	471	15	157	19%	33%
2017-18	15	50	2	38	45	792	12	249	27%	31%
2018-19	15	50	1	36	-	1,050	-	319	-	30%
2019-20	15	50	1 ²⁵	36	-	904	-	295	-	33%

Inference:

- Since the practice of contractual public prosecutors has been regularised, there have been no new appointments of permanent public prosecutors, and as of 2019 there is only one working permanent public prosecutor, who no longer fights cases but manages the administrative work of the office of Assistant Director and Public Prosecutor.
- Out of 50 sanctioned posts for contractual public prosecutors, 36 were working in 2019-20. Of the total cases advocated by these prosecutors, 33% were convicted (295) in 2019.

²⁵ The single permanent public prosecutor no longer taking up any case because he is the Assistant Director and Public Prosecutor and manages the administrative aspect of the office. Therefore, the disposal and pending cases in the case of permanent prosecutors is not applicable.

2. Every public prosecutor is appraised on a qualitative framework by self and a Reviewing Officer. Analysis of the same is given below with different attributes on which they are graded:

For the year 2019-20 no qualitative appraisal was conducted. Below is the data presented for appraisal in the previous two years.

Table 33: Qualitative Analysis of Sessions Court Contractual Public Prosecutors in 2017-18 and 2018-19

Particulars of Appraisal Form		Grade	In % ²⁶
			2017-18	2018-19*
Industry and Application		Good	86%	100%

General Perception of the judges/courts shout performances/ability		Good	27%	100%
Instances, if any of court rebuking or imposing cost for indiscipline or incompetence (with sufficient details and documents)		No	-	100%
Instances, Insubordination if any (with sufficient details and documents)		No	-	100%
Overall performance/General assessment		Good	41%	100%
Grading		Good	73%	100%

Note (*) In 2017-18, Number of contractual public prosecutors were 37 while in 2018-19 number has decreased to 36. In 2018-19, of the 36 working prosecutors, appraisal was done only of 32 prosecutors since the remaining 4 had not completed 6 months.

Inference:

In 2018-19 all the contractual public prosecutors were rated good on all the parameters. There is a stark difference as compared to the previous appraisal showing that the appraisal process was not taken seriously. One cannot consider the qualitative appraisal valid when compared to the fact that conviction rate was only 30% in that year.

²⁶ Percentage of total prosecutors who received a good grade to total prosecutors appraised.

Number of Sessions Judges	82	70	-15%	86	74	-14%

Inference:

There was a 14% shortage in Sessions court judges as of April 2020. An understaffed judicial system adversely affects the performance of the judges since the caseload is disproportionately distributed.

VII. Lifecycle Study of Mumbai's Sessions Court Cases from 2013 to 2017

A. Overview

Background:

In our 2013 paper on the State of Policing and Law and Order we at Praja Foundation, observed that the rate of conviction has been dropping for serious offence cases. A consistent recommendation by Praja has been to monitor and increase the conviction rate particularly in Class II serious offences (i.e. crime against body such as rape, molestation, murder and kidnapping). The conviction rates in 2012 were as low as 7%, but improved from 9% in 2014 to 19% in 2016. One of the reason that was cited in various reports in media and through interactions we had with several authorities was that the problem lies with the way serious offence cases are handled in Sessions courts. This was the primary motivation driving our study. The Indian criminal justice system is a very comprehensive and rigorous system. The whole system has four major pillars, namely:

1. Law enforcement (Investigation)
2. Prosecution
3. The courts (Judicial decision)
4. Reform (correctional institutions)

The purpose of the analysis was to understand the above-mentioned first three pillars of the system in depth and assess the reasons in delays in proceedings and judgments.

Process:

The process followed for analysing the sessions court cases was as follows:

1. To plot a clear 'life cycle' of various stages that a case has proceeded from registration to judgment (if given)
2. To study judgments for understanding reasons for acquittals
3. To find factors which may have caused delays in proceedings and/or adversely affected conviction rates

The life cycle illustrates the various stages a case goes through and its outcome and factors leading to conviction or acquittal. We decided to confine this study to Sessions courts in Mumbai with understanding that as per the law the most serious offence cases are tried in these courts. Data for the same was a set of criminal cases collected from 'Roznama' (case entry registers) maintained in courts for details of pending cases and case judgments obtained through RTI applications from all the three courts of Mumbai (Fort, Sewree and Dindoshi).

The case numbers were entered in the District Courts, Maharashtra website (<http://court.mah.nic.in/courtweb/index.php>) to get details of the cases and judgements.

Sessions Court Study 2008 to 2012:

The first Sessions court study on 1,326 Sessions court cases with judgement from 2008 to 2012 was published in Praja's 2018 report on State of Policing and Law and Order. It showed the conviction rate to be 23% of the cases studied. Of the cases that were acquitted, 90% were due to failure to prove charge, due to lack of evidence or witnesses.

Sessions Court Study 2013 to 2017:

The current study aims to build upon the previous study to look at improvements in conviction rates and analyse reasons for acquittal in the context of other crime statistics to understand the causes of delay in the policing and judicial systems. 6,216 cases from 2013 to 2017 were mapped of which judgements were given in 2,450 cases upto 4th November 2020, which has been analysed below.

B. Overall Analysis of Sessions Court Cases

Table 35: Total number cases convicted and acquitted in Mumbai's Sessions Courts in 2008-12 and 2013-17

Years	Cases	Convicted	Acquitted	Total
2008 to 2012	Number of cases	310	1,016	1,326
	% of cases to total	23%	77%	100%
2013 to 2017	Number of cases	586	1,864	2,450
	% of cases to total	24%	76%	100%

Table 36: Overall Months taken from FIR to Judgement of cases in Mumbai's Sessions Courts in 2008-12 and 2013-17

Years	Months Taken
	FIR date to Charge sheet	Charge sheet to first hearing date	First Hearing to Decision Date	FIR to Decision Date
2008 to 2012	11.6	1.9	12.3	25.8
2013 to 2017	11.1	0.7	28.6	40.4

Table 37: Overall Reasons for acquittals²⁸ of cases in Mumbai's Sessions Courts in 2008-12 and 2013-17

Years	Cases	Witness /Victim Hostile	Complainant withdrew case	Benefit of doubt	Failure to prove guilt charge (Lack of evidence or Lack of witness)	Total Acquittals
2008 to 2012	Number	33	10	62	911	1,016
	%	3.2%	1.0%	6.1%	89.7%	100%
2013 to 2017	Number	149	15	216	1,484	1,864
	%	8.0%	0.8%	11.6%	79.6%	100%

Inference:

- The conviction rate in the last 10 years has not improved- only 24% of cases from 2013 to 2017 and 23% cases from 2008 to 2012 were convicted in Mumbai's Sessions court.
- Months taken to solve cases- FIR to decision date has almost doubled from 25.8 months in 2008 to 2012 to 40.4 months in 2013 to 2017.
- Major reason for acquittal in 2013 to 2017 cases was failure of the prosecution to prove guilt due to lack of evidence and witnesses (79.6%)

²⁸ The 'types' of reasons attributed were determined from the conclusions in the judgements. The categorisation was determined accordingly where one of the type has been profoundly stated, otherwise 'failure to prove charge' which is a combination of various factors has been assigned.

Other IPC	40	0	100	732	872
Total	149	15	216	1,484	1,864

Inference:

- Conviction rate in rape cases was a mere 18% while it took on an average 42 hearings and more than 3 years to arrive at a judgement. Major cause of acquittal in these cases was failure to prove guilt (77% cases).
- On an average 24% cases were convicted, with judgements taking more than 3 years to pass.
- Highest time taken to pass judgements was in cases of dacoity (5.8 years) and grievous hurt (3.8 years).

VIII. Deliberations by MLAs

In the 13th Maharashtra Legislative Assembly (2014 to 2019) Mumbai's MLAs asked 22,345 questions of which 2,613 i.e. 12% questions were related to crime. The issue wise breakup of questions asked is given below.

Table 40: Issue wise questions related to crime asked by MLAs from 2014-15 to 2018-19³⁰

Inference:

22 questions were raised on murder related cases, while 3 questions were raised on rape cases in 2018-19. Only 2 questions were raised on crime against children inspite of large number of reported cases.

³⁰ Assembly sessions in the financial years included are as follows: 2014-15 - Winter 2014, Budget 2015, 2015-16 - Monsoon 2015 and Winter 2015, 2016-17 - Budget 2016, Monsoon 2016 and Winter 2016, 2017-18 - Budget 2017, Monsoon 2017, Winter 2017 & Budget 2018, 2018-19 – Monsoon 2018 and Winter 2018. Budget 2019 had no questions due to code of conduct for General Elections and was therefore not included.

F. Key Pillars of the Criminal Justice System

The process of adjudication requires several factors to work together to get timely action in order to ensure delivery of justice. The several entities come together to form the legal system which does not function efficiently if even one of these entities is ineffective. The investigation, Public prosecution and the Judiciary all need to work in sync for better dispensing of justice. Although no two cases in the criminal trial are quite the same, we see that there is recurrent trend of acquittal in cases. The unmerited acquittals mean serious injustice.

1) Police Investigation:

For Mumbai Police, Police sub-inspector (PSI) and above designations are involved in the work of investigation. The shortage of police force severely impacts the efficiency of police investigation in heinous crime cases. The serious shortfall in the police personnel is one of the reasons for repeated failures to carry out a thorough investigation. Police investigation plays a crucial role in establishing the case. The evidence if collected meticulously provides a strong ground for the public prosecutor and the judiciary to work better. It is important to understand that if these institutions are not well staffed it is going to disproportionately distribute the workload and hamper the performance of investigating officers in carrying out a thorough investigation. The investigation officer needs to have proper time and resources to pursue the case investigation. The issues of police department being understaffed, overworked persists and it affects the performance of the police in investigating cases of severity like rape cases of minors, murder, dowry deaths etc.

2) Public Prosecution:

The performance of criminal justice system depends on the efficient prosecution. It is prosecutor's responsibility to prove the case against the accused and if the prosecutor fails to do so, the case is fated for acquittal. In many of the cases that were acquitted prosecutor could not quite fulfil the responsibility of proving the case against the accused.

"The Prosecutor has a duty to the State, to the accused and to the Court. The Prosecutor is at all times a minister of justice, though seldom so described. It is not the duty of the prosecuting counsel to secure a conviction... His attitude should be so objective that he is, so far as humanly possible, indifferent to the result. It may be argued that it is for the tribunal alone, whether magistrate or jury, to decide guilt or innocence" (Christmas Humphreys (1955 Criminal Law Review 739 (740-741))³¹. Prosecutors have authority independent of the police and have the responsibility of maintaining rule of law.

3) Sessions Courts:

The Sessions Court was established under the powers given to the State Government by Section 9 of the Criminal Procedure Code. The Mumbai Sessions Court started functioning from 16th August 1948.³² Sessions courts are supposed to speedily and efficiently dispose of cases primarily within the session. However, understaffed courts and procedural aspects of hearings and trials leads to inefficiency in the judicial system. It is important that all these three limbs of the criminal justice system work together to ensure delivery of justice.
